Dear Editor of WJEL,

I am sending this email to submit our paper entitled "FLIPPED CLASSROOM-BASED CORPUS FOR EFL GRAMMAR INSTRUCTION: OUTCOMES AND PERCEPTIONS". It is an innovative approach to ELT, particularly in the teaching and learning of English grammar in EFL context. We designed Flipped classroom-based corpus as a result of our contextual analysis and reviews of relevant literature. We finally came to a blend of Flipped Classroom and Corpus, and enacted and evaluated its implementation through the examination of its efficacy. This is the first study that demonstrates the design and effect of the dual model of instruction for EFL grammar. It provides practical and theoretical insights for ELT practitioners and is believed to be of current readers' interests within the five or ten years ahead.

Thank you for your attention and gladly looking forward to hearing from you soon.

Regards,

Nurul Lailatul Khusniyah and Husnawadi

Dear Nurul Lailatul Khusniyah and Husnawadi,

Thank you for the submission of your paper to our journal. It has been assigned to a peer review.

We use a double-blind system for peer reviews. The paper will be peer-reviewed by at least two experts. The review process may take four to ten weeks. We will inform you of our decision and the reviewers' comments as soon as possible.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Joe Nelson

Dear Editor,

We apologize that we will send the money tomorrow as we cannot do it today. Our question is "Is the Bank of Montreal similar to BMO Bank of Montreal? because in our mobile bank account, there is only one choice of name "Bank of Montreal" without preceded by the word "MBO"

It has been a bit difficult to find a friend with a paypal, so we decided to use our mobile bank app where there is only "Bank of Montreal" without preceded by the word "BMO".

We are looking forward to hearing from you soon.
