Dear Susilahudin Putrawangsa (University of Canberra),

On behalf of the Proceedings and Organising Committees we are pleased to communicate the reviewers' comments on your paper (attached) submitted for MERGA44 (3—7 July 2022, Launceston).

Your Research Paper entitled, "Embodied Task to Promote Spatial Reasoning and Early Understanding of Multiplication" authored together with Dr Sitti Patahuddin, University of Canberra (and identified by its blind review submission number 23) has been classed as "Accepted for publication and presentation subject to MINOR REVISIONS that will be checked by the Editorial team."

Resubmission is required by the final submission date for all research papers (March 20, 2022), with changes noted as track changes in the full version of your paper. Your paper will be checked by the Proceedings Editors but not reviewed externally a second time, so please make sure all authors have checked your paper thoroughly.

Please refer to the reviewers' feedback attached for specific comments and respond by amending your Research Paper and re-submitting using the conference submission form linked from <https://www.merga.net.au/Public/Annual-Conference/Submission.aspx>

Also attach the review document with notes added that explain how the suggestions were (or were not) addressed.

Please follow all of the guidelines provided in the information for authors at <https://www.merga.net.au/Public/Annual-Conference/Submission.aspx>, and quote the ID number allocated to your Early Bird paper [23] when you re-submit.

Updated information about travel and accommodation is available on the MERGA Conference website <https://www.merga.net.au/Public/Annual-Conference/>

If you have any questions, please address them to MERGA44.Submissions@utas.edu.au.

We look forward to seeing you at MERGA44 in July.

With very kindest regards,

Noleine
