Dear Baiq El Badriati,

we have now received two reports on your paper from competent reviewers. As you will see, they find some merit in your paper but also major flaws. With reports like these, we are on the verge between a rejection and an offer to revise and resubmit. I have decided to give a chance to the paper and offer you to submit a new, substantially revised version. Please be advised that we will need particularly clear and convincing improvements to the paper according to the reviewers' suggestions to be able to consider it for publication. If you decide to revise your paper accordingly, when you resubmit please include a detailed note in which you describe point-by-point how you have addressed the reviewers' comments and suggestions. I look forward to receiving your revised version.
